TRUSTEES' MEETING.

All members present. Minutes of last meeting were approved and demands on the city attorney taken up. No. 186 from F. R. Sinclair for $80 for street work for the month ending April 17th, from G. B. Woodberry in the sum of $62.70 for recording deed and for salary, and from Frederick Baker for $55, services as city attorney, and for stenographic work, were referred to the finance committee. Other demands amounting to $103 were reported back from the finance committee favorably and warrants ordered to be issued. Demand No. 181 referred to the street superintendent, who was instructed to charge the items therein to the property owners on Fourth street between Glendale avenue and A street. This refers to expense of publication of street work.

There were several representatives of Los Angeles financial concerns present waiting for the opening of the sealed proposals to buy the issue of $5000 in bonds of the city, authorized by the voters at the recent election. Considerable interest was exhibited, therefore, when the board took up the matter and the secretary was instructed to open the bids. The first bid opened was from the Los Angeles Trust company, which bid par, accrued interest and a premium of $636.50. Interest increased on the part of every one in the audience as this bid was announced; the common feeling being one of pleased surprise at this evidence of appreciation of our first issue of bonded indebtedness. The next bid opened seemed to indicate that this appreciation does not extend very far eastward, as it came from the First National bank of Barnesville, Ohio, and offered only $101 premium. The next bid, however, proved the winner; it came from the Adams-Phillips company of Los Angeles, and bid the sum of $1047 premium for the issue. The other bids were from W. R. Staats & Co. of Los Angeles, $728.50; Merchants Trust company, Los Angeles, $813.25. The last bid had not been filed until 7:35, five minutes late, according to the advertisement. The representatives of one of the lower bidders objected to the phraseology of the successful bid; but as it was a mere technicality, there is not much doubt but that the bonds will be sold to the Adam Phillips company for the sum named, $6047, with accrued interest. Every bid was accompanied by the requisite $250 check. The bids were all referred to the finance committee and the city attorney, to be reported on at the next meeting.

The street superintendent was instructed to do the necessary work at Third and J street, to wet down Verdugo road, which has recently been graded, and to have the streets all sprinkled preparatory for Shriners' day, May 6th. The street superintendent was instructed to serve notice on the owner of the building at Seventh and I streets requiring him to remove the same where it encroaches upon the public street. The matter of the location of the street light at the intersection of Brand boulevard and Fourth street, was referred to the street superintendent. The application of I. F. Ogier to do street work by private contract on H street was referred to the public works committee, the grade of H street not being established.

Mr. E. D. Reynolds asked that cement work on B street be accepted so that bondsmen could be released. There was considerable discussion over the matter, and it was decided finally that the report of the street superintendent, to the effect that the work has been satisfactorily performed, be accepted. Application of C. F. Parker to do street work by private contract on First and Mary streets was read and referred back with request that the sidewalks be made five feet in width. Committee on public works recommended acceptance of the map of Glen Ina tract and recommendation was adopted.

T. W. Doyle was appointed deputy city clerk and ex-officio deputy city assessor. Map of W. E. Ransom subdivision (Third and Verdugo road) was presented and referred to committee on public works, and the city engineer. The city engineer was instructed to make an estimate of the difference in cost of property owners on Fifth street, if that portion of the street between Childs tract and the Verdugo road be included in the proposed improvement of the street.

Messrs. Watson, Anderson and Campbell were appointed a committee to decide on plans for fire protection, including fire plugs, apparatus, etc. The city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance in reference to a public library. The finance committee was authorized to make arrangements for printing or lithographing the fire apparatus bonds.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

There was a well attended meeting of the board of trade, held at the city hall Saturday evening last. A number of bills were allowed and ordered paid. The secretary read a number of letters which he had received making inquiries about Glendale, and was instructed to send copies of Glendale papers to all who requested them. Mr. McClure made a motion, seconded by Mr. Anderson, that the board donate $200 to the entertainment of the Shriners on May 6th. On motion of Mr. Blackburn, seconded by Mr. Overton, the motion was amended to read $100, and, as amended, was passed. The secretary reported $280 in the treasury. On motion of Mr. H. M. Overton, the secretary was instructed to secure bids for the furnishing of 10,000 or 20,000 folding posters descriptive of Glendale, for free distribution. M. A. Rogers, R. C. Sternberg and H. M. Overton were appointed a committee to see to the printing of posters and instructed not to spend more than $100 for the work.

Mr. Blackburn, of the committee on Normal school site, reported having endeavored without success to get a donation of ten acres of land from C. E. Thom, the people of Glendale to purchase five additional acres, and offer the whole as a donation for the school. On motion, the executive committee was instructed to increase, if in their judgment necessary, the donation of $100 for the Shriners reception.

Board adjourned until Saturday evening, May 4th.

SHRINERS' COMMITTEE.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the committee on the reception of the Shriners, held at Masonic hall last Saturday afternoon.

Tropico sent a large number of ladies representing various organizations to the meeting, and they entered into the spirit of the occasion in a manner that gave great encouragement to all interested. Finance committee reported no further progress in collections, the total amount standing at about $520.00, of which amount $500 is to be paid to Casa Verdugo for refreshments, as before stated. The necessity of securing additional funds was dwelt upon, and the chairman, Mr. Albright, called for reports from various organizations which had been requested to contribute, but no progress was reported. The chairman stated that it was the intention of the committee to give an entertainment in the skating rink at Fourth and Glendale avenues, for the purpose of raising funds for the reception, and a discussion of details followed. On motion of Mr. Sherer, Wednesday, May 1st, was fixed as the date for the entertainment, which, it was decided, should be musical and literary in character. In regard to badges for visitors on May 6th it was decided that the committee furnish ribbon for the same, the representatives of the two newspapers present agreeing to print 1,000 each gratis. It was reported that the Tropico Berry Growers' association had offered to donate two thousand boxes of strawberries for the occasion. A committee consisting of Messrs. Goode, Blackburn and Sherer was appointed to furnish oranges, it being the wish of the committee that each visitor should be supplied with a box of strawberries, an orange and a rose. The ladies expressed their willingness to look after the flowers and contributed in the discussion of details many valuable suggestions.

Committee adjourned to meet next (this) Saturday afternoon.

C. E. SOCIAL.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church gave a delightfully successful social at Odd Fellows' hall last Tuesday evening. The affair was under the management of Miss Mabel Patterson. The decorations were very fine, pink being the dominant color. Bertha Patterson and Mr. Fred Hezmalhalch sang a duet in their best style, which leaves nothing further to be said.

The Rice brothers and Clarence Peck gave a string trio, which was received with great applause and was a very fine performance. Mr. Clarence Peck also rendered a violin solo, which was fully appreciated. Mrs. Fred Hezmalhalch in her usual charming manner gave a reading and still another in response to an encore. The table where light refreshments were served presented a very pretty appearance with its decorations in light pink.

Altogether the occasion passed off very happily for all present.

GLENDALE. GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER COMMITTEE.

Miss Cora Hickman, Worthy Matron of Glen Eyrie chapter, Order of Eastern Star, appointed a committee of five, Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, Mrs. Frank Albright, Mrs. David Imler, Mrs. Effie Seeley and Miss Fred Borthick, to represent Glen Eyrie Chapter at the committee meeting which convened in Masonic Hall Saturday afternoon.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

China and Japan flooded with spurious currency. The discovery may seriously affect the orient.

National Peace congress held in Carnegie hall, New York. Many notable addresses by eminent men.

Serious earthquakes in Mexico, Chilapa, Chilpancingo and Tintia destroyed, 38 people killed, many injured.

Russians and Japanese evacuate Manchuria in accordance with terms of treaty of Portsmouth. The territory reverted to China.

By reason of a decision given in the United States supreme court in 1905, California's state board of equalization instructs county assessors to assess national bank stock.

In Ruef case, in San Francisco, great trouble being experienced in selection of jury. Twelve men have been selected, but both sides have still the right of peremptory challenge.

James H. Eckels dead. Was controller of the currency under Cleveland. At his death was president of the Commercial National bank of Chicago. A man of national prominence in financial world.

In Thaw case, defendant remains in jail, pending application for release on bail, which will be opposed by Jerome. Another trial will not be given before September, Delmas dismissed as counsel. New Yorkers not favorably impressed with California lawyer.

In Judge Landis' court, Chicago, Standard Oil company found guilty of accepting rebates. Indictment included 1463 individual cases, and the fine will amount to millions. Company accepted a six cent rate from favored shippers when its published schedule was 18 cents.

SANITARIUM GROUNDS.

The Sanitarium grounds at present are a joy to the eye. The hedges of marguerites along Fourth street, in full bloom, are a revelation not only to tourists, who do not know the possibilities of horticulture in California, but to many of our own people as well, who struggle along through the season with one or two sickly plants which will possibly bloom and as possibly not. The great masses of brilliant scarlet geraniums banked up against the verandah and elsewhere about the grounds, almost dazzle the eye with their glow of color. The many varieties of roses are now at their best and the greensward is cool, restful and refreshing to the eye. The grounds are cared for by Mr. A. F. Slem, and their condition speaks eloquently in his praise.

THE REBEKAHS INITIATION.

There were four candidates initiated at the regular meeting of the Carnation Rebekah lodge last Wednesday evening. There was a full attendance of the lodge members, as well as a number of visitors present, and the evening was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Eva Banker and Mrs. Alletia Goode were elected delegates to the state assembly to be held in Los Angeles May 14, 15 and 16 next.

Of Interest to Taxpayers

On the first day of August last, the City of Glendale, by Wilmot Parcher, president of the Board of Trustees, entered into a contract with Riggs & McClure, per E. M. McClure, by which the official printing of the city was to be done by the firm named (owners of the GLENDALE NEWS) for one year from June 23, 1906, at a price of fifty cents per inch for first publication, and forty cents per inch for each subsequent insertion.

On the first of January last E. M. McClure sold the NEWS, and the contract alluded to, to the present owners (together with his "Good Will").

In last week's Independent, the same E. M. McClure asks that the city trustees ignore the contract which they made with him (he having sold the same to other parties for good money) and give his present publication, work which they are bound to have done according to their contract. Failing to do which, they are accused of "throwing away the taxpayers' money."

This regard for the taxpayers' money is touching, but of recent growth. It did not oppress this person of philanthropic impulses noticeably when on March 7, 1906, he endeavored to force the city into a contract with him to do the official printing at eight cents per line (72 cents per inch) brevier, for first insertion and four cents per line for subsequent insertions! Neither was his feeling for the taxpayers extremely poignant when at a later date he endeavored to hold the trustees up for the sum of $115 for printing the Tax Assessment Ordinance, finally compromising on $80, which sum was still some fifty or sixty dollars more than the trustees would have been obliged to pay had they not felt the necessity of preserving harmony at a critical period of the young municipality's history.

We rejoice in the evidence of moral growth which prompts this same gentleman to say in the last issue of his paper: "We cannot see wherein the proprietors of any particular business have an exclusive right to do public work and charge their own price for it," etc. This lofty sentiment did not animate him when, from February until August of last year, the city trustees struggled with him in the endeavor to get a reasonable figure from him on city printing. He does not now think that the contract the city made with him last June (having since sold it with his "Good Will") is legal and binding!

Well, well! Is it merely paresis or a brain storm? As for the bid submitted to the city trustees offering to print a certain resolution for fifteen cents per inch, it so obviously referred to legal printing covered by the contract that even Trustee Anderson finally discovered the fact and voted with the majority to table it.

This action was also doubtless based on the admitted fact that the Valley Independent has no legal standing as yet and is not entitled to make legal publications on account of the paper not having been in existence one year, as required by law.

Assessment of National Bank Stock

In notifying county assessors throughout the state that they must assess the stock of national banks, the Board of Equalization has given some evidence of a capability for usefulness. That money invested in a national bank cannot be taxed, is an illogical proposition, contrary to justice and common sense; and yet it has always been the custom to so exempt it. Money does not bear its just proportion of the taxes, as it can be shifted around so easily that the assessor, however vigilant, succeeds in locating a very small proportion of it when he makes up his assessment roll. A little equivocation and a small portion of perjury usually enables the thrifty capitalist to evade his responsibility to the tax collector. Banks only pay on their personal property; their deposits are not touched by the assessor, on the supposition that the depositors have confessed individually to the amount they have in bank, and to tax the deposits would be double taxation, which is unconstitutional.

Perhaps some day a statesman will slip into our legislature by some error in the plans of the "organization," and we shall have a law taxing bank deposits actually in the banks and compelling the banks to pay the tax thereon. The individual depositors could be relieved of the requirement to report the amount of money in bank, and the bank could charge back to every depositor his proportion of taxes paid on his deposit.

At a Boston Peace meeting, Sunday last, William Lloyd Garrison made a speech denouncing the war with Spain. Wonder if the orator with the distinguished name has heard that the Spanish war is over!

At Juarez, Mexico, last Sunday, during the usual Sabbath afternoon exercises, a distinguished citizen and matador, Don Rasulio Hernandez, name and all, was tossed in the air and seriously injured by an infuriated bull, contrary to all precedent and against the acknowledged etiquette of the bull ring. Three bulls had been killed, and the conduct of the fourth animal in refusing to be butchered to "make a Mexican holiday," is reprehensible in the extreme.

"John Strange Winter" (Mrs. Arthur Stannard), the novel writer, favors the "unwritten law," and a return to the practice of the duello rather than to the frequent appeal to the courts which at present prevails. She claims that the standard of honor has declined. She does not, however, recommend the duel for women! In the old fashioned way, she would still have the man do the fighting. Unselfish Mrs. Stannard!

It must be a great trial to a young man to spend a long time considering which of two girls he has been paying attention to, is best for him to marry, and then to find that neither one will have him.—Gardena Reporter.

A "great trial," Bro. Morrill! Why, Great Scott, man, it's an outrage! Girls are awfully inconsiderate about these things!

TAXPAYERS' MONEY WASTED.

Editor News:

Under the above caption there appears in the editorial section of the Valley Independent of April 12, '07, a column article which would seem to convey the idea that in the matter of the city printing the price paid is excessive and we are told that "public officials should understand that they are not elected to office to waste the taxpayers' money." As some of the public officials of Glendale have so understood from the beginning of their term of office, and as their endeavor to act according to that understanding in the matter of the city printing has caused them no little trouble and anxiety, it is pertinent that we go into this matter more fully now that the ice is broken and acquaint the taxpayer with more of the facts in the case. The article in question first alludes to a certain contract between the city of Glendale and Riggs and McClure, fails to say anything about the terms of the document, but does state that it was supposed to terminate in February, 1907, and continues thus: "By what hocus pocus the contract may have been changed from February to June we know not, but suppose it could best be explained by the parties who are now trying to make taxpayers believe that the contract was made to run from June, 1906, to June, 1907. As I have had the contract in my custody as city clerk since it was signed by the city trustees and E. M. McClure on August 1st, 1906, the above charge of trickery and deceit would imply that I am at least a party to the same, if not the only person meant. I therefore rise to do the explaining. All the writing in this contract, including the dates (excepting the signatures of the parties), is in the handwriting of President Parcher of the board. Every letter and line of it as it is today was there when E. M. McClure signed it. This statement I stand ready to make under oath, and would suggest that if the editor of the Independent is troubled by signing papers without proper knowledge of their contents the courts, if applied to, might afford relief by appointing a guardian.

The printing contract has a history which began February 21st, 1906, more than five months before it was actually signed, and as briefly as possible I will give this history as it appears in the record book of the city of Glendale. Before beginning, the "Taxpayer" and others shall bear in mind, first, that in February, 1906, the city of Glendale was in its infancy. It had no money, no experience, not even a roof over its head, and the last thing a sincere and genuine well-wisher for its future prosperity and success would do would be to drive as sharp a bargain as possible with the infant for his own benefit; second, that E. M. McClure at the time was publisher of the Glendale News, and that whenever reference is made to that paper or to Riggs and McClure, it was always the latter who appeared before the trustees and did business with them; third, that as nine brevier lines make an inch, 8 cents a line means 72 cents an inch.

Extracts from the records of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale:

February 21st, 1906 (first meeting): Matter of an agreement for printing of ordinances, etc., referred to committee on ordinances and judiciary. (Moyse, Fancett, Jennings). February 28—Committee asked for further time. March 7—Committee reported that the Glendale News had given figures as follows: Brevier type, first insertion, 8 cents per line, each subsequent insertion, 4 cents per line. Discussed and referred back to committee for further action. March 14—Trustee Moyse reported that the committee had not obtained all the information it desired and asked for additional time. April 4—Ordinance committee given further time in the matter of printing contract. April 16—New board of trustees. Committee on ordinance and judiciary. Anderson, Fancett, Jennings. May 2—A representative of the Glendale News presented a bid offering to publish all matter necessary to be published at the price of 8 cents per brevier line of 20 ems. Discussion followed and bid was withdrawn. (Later) The representative of the Glendale News presented a second bid. All printing and publishing of ordinances, delinquent tax lists and legal documents to appear in the columns of the Glendale News and at the rate of 8 cents per line for first insertion and 4 cents per line for each subsequent insertion, brevier type, 20 ems per line." On motion, this bid was referred to the ordinance and judiciary committee to report at next regular meeting. Note—At this time and up to and including the 15th of May all ordinances were being posted, as the News was not yet a year old. The discussion of the first bid brought out the fact that the trustees, if they saw fit, could continue to post ordinances and have the printing of them done as job work at a much less cost; hence the withdrawal of the first bid and the wording of the second bid. The city clerk, after the presenting of the second bid, informed the board that ordinance No. 14, soon to be passed, would cost the city under this bid approximately $115.00, whereas at the price charged in Los Angeles for setting up printed matter it could be printed and posted for approximately $20.00, and the city clerk "wishes to call the attention of the taxpayers to the impartial stand taken" by the trustees at this time, as they "believed in a just and an economical expenditure of the taxpayers' money," and wished to investigate the clerk's statement before taking action hence the motion to refer the second bid to the committee for further consideration. About this time such words as "fool," "knave" and "scab" were heard within the sacred precincts of the city hall, and in the next issue of the News the public was duly informed that the city clerk was a would-be dictator, etc. See Glendale News, May 4, '06. Was it because he "could not see wherein the proprietors of any particular business have an exclusive right to do public work and charge their own price for it?" Later in same meeting: The representative of the Glendale News addressed the board and asked for a reconsideration of its action in referring the bid offered by the News to a committee.

On motion duly passed the action was reconsidered and the matter taken from the hands of the committee.

Moved and seconded that the bid of the Glendale News be accepted. June 6—The finance committee (through its chairman, Trustee Watson) reported that the present agreement in regard to the city printing was not satisfactory and recommended that same be terminated. On motion the agreement was terminated and the matter referred to committee of the whole, also that the News present its bill to date.

June 13—A bid from the Glendale News to do city printing at 50 cents per inch for first insertion and 40 cents for each subsequent insertion was read and referred to city attorney to draw a contract in accordance therewith. July 12—In the matter of a contract with the Glendale News for printing, the one before the board not being correct in all particulars, the city attorney was instructed to draw up a new contract in accordance with the written proposal submitted by the News at this meeting. On August 1st, at a regular meeting of the board, the new contract, by which the city agreed to pay 50 and 40 cents per inch for its legal publications, was duly signed and is the one referred to in the Independent article.

After a stubborn and persistent fight of nearly four months Mr. McClure reduced his bid from 8 cents per line to 5-9 cents, afterward sold the News and the contract, and now comes forward as the champion of the poor, oppressed "taxpayer" and says "the city is now getting the worst of it just 35 cents per inch," and "we do not believe there is any moral obligation that will justify the throwing away of the taxpayers' money."

So the taxpayers' money has been thrown away and is being wasted! Naturally, he wants to know who gets the benefit. Let's see: The records show that up to the time Mr. McClure sold his interest in the News that paper had received pay for 1071 1-2 inches of matter at 50 cents, $535.75, and 449 1-2 inches at 40 cents, $179.50; total, $715.25. If 15 cents an inch is all it was worth we see where $487.40 "wasted" to. Since Mr. McClure sold the contract the News has printed 517 1-2 inches at 50 cents, $258.75, and 223 1-2 inches at 40 cents, $89.40; total, $348.15, of which $237 "has" "wasted." Since the new publisher of the News paid a larger sum for the plant because the 50-cent contract was one of the assets, it follows that Mr. McClure simply got paid in advance a certain amount for all city printing done since he sold and all that will be done up to June 23, '07, the life of the contract.

In the classic language of the Independent of February 22, '07, second page, second column: "Taxpayers—Dear Suckers, are you next?"

Now, in conclusion, the article in the Independent conveys the impression that that paper has submitted a bid of 15 cents per inch for city printing in general. No such bid has come before the board. The record for April 3, 1907, reads: "A proposal was received from Charles E. Stanley, representing the Valley Independent, as power of attorney, offering to print the fire bonds resolution at the price of 15 cents per inch. Received and placed on file."

This proposal reads as follows: "March 28, 1907. To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale: Gentlemen: I hereby submit a proposal for the printing of the fire bonds resolution passed March 27th, inst. I will do the printing at the rate of fifteen cents (15c) per inch, brevier type, twenty ems wide. Signed, Charles E. Stanley, representing the Valley Independent as power of attorney."

The fire bonds resolution referred to contained a clause directing the clerk to publish it twice in the Glendale News, and it had been so published once when this bid was opened. However, the proposition resolves itself into the following: If fifteen cents an inch is a business-like, fair and just price for doing the city printing, what about the consuming love for the dear "taxpayer" of one who tries to get 72 cents and, failing of that, takes 50 cents, thereby causing the city to pay to date for work that should cost $339.30 the sum of $1063.70, a difference of $724.40, and which at the 8 cent a line rate would have cost $1386.30, a difference of $1047.06?

If it is not a businesslike, fair and just price, and "we believe every fair-minded person will agree with us" that this is at least very doubtful, then the proposition can mean nothing less than the attempted crippling of the Glendale News, and with that paper well out of the way, then, Mr. Taxpayer, in the light of past experience, you will pay dearly enough for your printing (whistle).

The Woman's Home and Foreign Society of the Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. H. Chase on Fourth street, on Tuesday afternoon, the 16th. A good attendance.

The Tuesday Afternoon club will meet in the library room on Tuesday afternoon. The subject for the afternoon will be the life of the poet, Byron. Members please come prepared with "Wayside Notes," as well as thoughts on the subject.

T. W. Blackburn and wife, who have been spending the winter in Glendale, departed for their Omaha home Monday, via Salt Lake. One advantage the travelers found in traveling by this route was in the fact that they were able to check their baggage through to destination from Glendale.

The Glendale library has just received a new consignment of 50 books from the state library at Sacramento. We have not yet had time to look over them, but judging from the character of the books we have formerly had, we have no doubt but that many recent and excellent works are included in the list.

The Monrovia News reports that postoffice receipts there during the past year have increased 30 per cent. We rejoice with and congratulate our sister city on this evidence of her growth; but are glad to report that the receipts of the Glendale office have increased about 100 per cent in the same time.

We regret very much to learn that Mr. T. R. Puckett, who is at the Good Samaritan hospital as a result of the broken leg, which resulted from an accident in Glendale a few weeks ago, is not recovering as rapidly as his friends hoped he might. At last reports, however, he was feeling better and we hope soon to be able to announce his convalescence.

The Woman's Guild of St. Mark's church held a most important meeting at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Chase last Thursday. The following officers were appointed for the year: President, Mrs. R. D. Lamson; vice president, Mrs. J. A. Farrell; secretary, Mrs. Helen McIntyre; treasurer, Miss E. C. Penn. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. F. Church, Thursday afternoon, April 23.

A large delegation of Glendale ladies attended the county convention of the W. C. T. U., held in Los Angeles this week. Among them were Mrs. Gaylord, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Harn, Mrs. Hendershott, Mrs. Sexton, Mrs. Elias Ayers and Mrs. Galloway. The convention proceedings were interesting as showing the growth of the organization and the progress of the work, due very largely to the efficient services of Mrs. Hester I. Griffiths, who was re-elected president.

Miss Almee Barager entertained at a card party Wednesday evening a party of about 20 young people, who enjoyed themselves immensely, particularly in trying to master the intricacies of a new game that Miss Barager has just imported. The game was not mastered, but it served its purpose very happily for all concerned. Ice cream and cake were served and the party, adjourning at a late hour, pronounced the evening a great success.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Rev. Cyrus B. Hatch, secretary of Occidental college, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. Mr. Hatch does not come to us in the endeavor to raise funds for the college which he represents, but to quicken our interest in Christian education. His address will be full of interest. The topic of the evening sermon by the pastor will be "Joseph as a Type of Jesus."

The last meeting of the Presbyterian Brotherhood was made pleasant by the presence of the ladies. Light refreshments were served and a very delightful evening was enjoyed by all present.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church have succeeded in gathering an array of talent for the concert of next Friday evening that is sure to delight the people of Glendale.

The program given below shows a happy blending of vocal and instrumental music rendered by those whose praises have reached our ears even when we have never had the privilege of listening to them.

The program will be followed by a social hour and refreshments will be on sale in the adjoining rooms. By this arrangement any who cannot enjoy music can be reached through another channel. Everybody will be sure to have a good time.

Tickets are on sale at Glendale News office.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Prof. Packard is succeeding finely in bringing up the service of song at our church, which is greatly enjoyed by all. We hear a great many favorable comments on leader and singers. This excellent service is doing us great good.

The W. H. M. S. held a very interesting meeting with a good program on Tuesday. This society within the church is planning for much needed work. They will report about $400 to be good cause this year, the first year of their existence here. There were about 20 ladies present at the meeting. They meet the third Tuesday of each month.

The pastor will preach morning and evening on next Sabbath. Subjects: "Sowing the Glory of God and Being transformed by the Spirit," "Becoming Acquainted with God and the Good Coming Thitherwith."

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between E. K. Crant, Llewellyn Andrews and Joshua Andrews, under the firm name of the Glendale Planing Mill, is hereby dissolved by mutual consent. E. K. Crant retires from the partnership and the business will hereafter be carried on by Llewellyn Andrews and Joshua Andrews under the title of the Glendale Planing Mill.

Polo at the Rink

Next Wednesday evening the Glendale polo team will play a match game on skates with the Santa Ana team at the skating rink. Admission 25 cents; or 35 cents with skates.

THE SHRINERS.

On May 5th (Sunday) the Shriners are expected to begin to arrive in Los Angeles. Their number may as well be designated as legion, in absence of definite data, and that means a great crowd. The excursion to Glendale is the first one on their list, and for this reason it will probably be better patronized than some of the others. We would like to impress upon our people the necessity of being prepared to properly receive the vast crowd of visitors that will on May 5th see our city and this valley for the first time—it will be our own fault if a goodly number of them do not see it again. Probably there will be no other occasion for years that will bring such a concourse of people to our valley as this Shriners' excursion on May 5th next, and its importance to us cannot be overestimated. Of course, many of us would have programmed them differently had the responsibility of doing so been ours. We believe it would have been better, not to have massed them all at one place, unless that place had been somewhat central for our settlement. But this is merely a detail and must detract in no way from our most cordial and hospitable reception of the visitors; and it should have the effect of inducing us to exert ourselves to the utmost to provide vehicles with which to distribute the excursionists over our valley and show them what we have and are.

Owners of vehicles are again reminded to notify Mr. R. C. Sternberg that they will be prepared to offer the same to the committee, of which he is chairman.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Joy Goodsell won second place in the high hurdles in the county meet at Harvard school last Saturday.

Prof. A. M. Brooks, principal of the Englewood High School, visited the high school Tuesday.

The physics class visited the Ivanhoe power plant Thursday to study the construction of dynamos and motors.

Keep an eye on your flowers. Botanists Banker and Walton are now loose.

Hope Kughen came out first of the week to meet her old school friends.

The track team, composed of Henry Lehman, Mgr.; C. Emery, Capt.; Richard Stine, Joy Goodsell, O. Emery, Allen Davenport, Monroe Walton, Arthur Taylor and Will Cotterall, went to Whittier Friday to try their mettle.

LA CRESCENTA.

Mrs. Hendrickson is ill in bed, but hopes soon to be up again.

Mrs. A. S. Booth is attending the Congregational convention at Redondo.

A new parsonage is being built at La Canada on the property adjoining the church. The land was donated by Dr. J. L. Lanterman.

Miss Banning has decided to build two bungalows instead of one, the first to be occupied by herself and mother, and the second one, composed of several rooms and large bath or swimming pool, to be used for overflow of guests from Fairmount. Work has already been begun.

Philip Begue, forest ranger, is now at home on a six months' furlough.

The store on the corner of Michigan and Los Angeles avenues will soon be opened by Mr. A. S. Booth with a complete stock of groceries.

Notice to Advertisers

We will distribute gratis on Shriners' Day (May 6th) 1000 copies of a special edition of the Glendale News. It will be illustrated and contain articles of special interest to our visitors as well as to our own people.

Give us your order for advertising early. We do not employ a solicitor.

LOST, WATCH—$5 reward. If found, return to C. D. Cox, Glendale. Was lost on Friday, April 19th, between Glendale station and livery barn. Initials on back I. K. Sunset 181.

THE BERRY GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

A visit to the depot of the Tropico-Glendale Berry Growers' association this week disclosed a scene of activity just suggestive of the condition there when the season really is at its height. Although the local strawberry fields are not as extensive as in one or two past seasons, the operations of the association the coming season promise to be the greatest in its history. The acreage embraced in the association is as follows:

Tropico and Glendale.....	300
Burbank	600
Arceadia	419
Whittier	120
Total	1449

The acreage at Tropico and Burbank may be subject to some slight revision, but the above is approximately correct. Arceadia and Whittier ship their fruit direct, but that from Burbank is hauled by teams to the Tropico depot, from whence it is shipped by the Pacific Electric. The amount of fruit being handled at present is only about 1000 crates (of 15 boxes) per day, which is not more than one-eighth of what may be expected later. An interesting and very important fact about these shipments is that the fruit is not now going to the Los Angeles market at all, but is being shipped to distant points in Arizona, New Mexico, Washington and San Francisco. This is certainly eloquent testimony to the high quality of our fruit, and the shipment to San Francisco certainly is something noteworthy. Since the business of the association has spread out to such an extent, Manager Parlier is frequently absent from the home headquarters, visiting other points. During his absence the efficient secretary, Mr. E. L. Drendel, is in charge.

Shriners' Benefit

The committee on reception of the Shriners, will give an entertainment for the benefit of the cause, on Wednesday evening, May 1st, at the skating rink. The program will consist of readings, and vocal and instrumental music. Doors will be open at 7:30 p.m. sharp; program at 8 sharp. Doors will be closed during the performance so that the program may not be interfered with. The entertainment will be a notable one and a very large attendance is anticipated. Admission, 25 cents.

TROPICO

Mrs. F. W. Miner and Miss Mary Miner of Los Angeles were the guests of Mrs. Edward Ayers, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks and Mr. and Mrs. Burling have returned to Tropic, having been absent since last fall at the mines.

Mr. E. L. Drendel is building a neat five-room up-to-date cottage on Glendale avenue adjoining the old Erskine residence.

Contractor H. D. Salveter, of Los Angeles, is building a $2000 house for Mr. Cox, on Tenth street, south of the Borthick tract.

Mrs. L. C. Rice, accompanied by her son, Jay Rice, departed for Ohio, Wednesday, where they will spend two months visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Moser have returned from their bridal trip to Santa Barbara and are cosily located in their pretty new bungalow on Tenth street.

Mr. William Malcolm has accepted the principalship of the school at El Monte, to complete the unexpired term of the principal who has resigned on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers of New York, after several months spent with Mr. and Mrs. A. Mecke, on San Fernando road, have taken possession of their new residence in Lomita Park.

Miss Evalena Ayers, who has been very much indisposed last week, has sufficiently recovered as to be able to resume her position at the Broadway Bank and Trust Company.

Miss Flora Chandler attended the annual picnic of the State Normal school, which was held in Elysian park Saturday. A bountiful lunch added much to the pleasure of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bennet of New York, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Imler of "Palm Villa," the past week, will visit in Los Angeles several weeks previous to an extended northern trip.

Mr. I. N. Miller, of Glendale avenue, has fitted up his store with gas burners, the gas being supplied by an auto carbide feed acetylene generator in the rear of his building. Mr. Miller is well pleased with the new light.

Mr. Newhouse was in attendance, Wednesday last, at the funeral of his father-in-law, Mr. A. R. Foster, in Los Angeles. Mr. Foster was a contractor and builder, well known in Tropic. Pneumonia was the cause of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Burlingham and daughter Daphne, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Banks, have returned from Cadiz, Cal., where they spent the winter in the marble quarries and gold mines, in which D. H. Imler is principal owner.

Mr. James Scott and sister, Miss Nellie Scott, entertained Los Angeles friends at their cosy bungalow the first of the week, the party consisting of Judge and Mrs. J. R. Wolcott of Grand Rapids, Mich., Daniel Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hough and J. C. White of Los Angeles.

Mrs. John Hobbs, accompanied by Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, were entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon given by Mrs. E. H. Hollenbeck, at her home in Los Angeles, Tuesday. Following the luncheon the afternoon was pleasantly spent at Hollenbeck Home.

Miss Anna Angspurger of Glendale and Mr. J. J. Von Blon, city editor of the Los Angeles Times, were entertained with a pretty breakfast party at "Palm Villa" Wednesday, by Miss Cora Hickman. A large bowl of fragrant crimson roses graced the center of the table. Covers were laid for six.

Mrs. I. W. Miller entertained the members of the Brethren church at a social Friday evening of last week. Rev. Kehler and a number of other guests from Los Angeles were present, in addition to friends in Tropic. There was an interesting program of speeches, readings and music, and a very pleasant time was experienced by all present.

Mrs. Harriet Brewster was the house guest of Mrs. Clark G. Wilkinson the past week.

Mrs. L. L. Cushing and Miss Elizabeth Cushing of Glendale avenue left for Santa Ana the first of the week, where they joined Mr. Charles Cushing and where they will remain several months.

Mr. Charles Cushing, who was recently graduated from the State Normal in Los Angeles, with especially high honors, has accepted a most lucrative position as instructor in the Santa Ana schools.

Dr. E. W. Bear, who has been the house guest of his brother and family, Mr. Frank R. Bear, left for San Francisco Wednesday. Dr. Bear will visit all of the important cities en route to his home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Edward Ayers is in receipt of a most interesting letter from her son Ed. Ayers, who recently sailed for Australia where he accepted an excellent position in one of the most noted gold mines there. Ed. reports a very pleasant voyage.

Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt entertained the Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Alfred Randolph of the Ladies' Aid, who is chairman of the "doll committee," presented a most beautiful array of handsomely dressed dolls, which she has arranged for the church bazaar, the ladies of the Methodist church intend giving the first of December.

Robert Taylor, who has been connected with Alfred Engelhardt's lumber yard since it was established here, several years ago, has accepted a similar position with Mr. Engelhardt in his new lumber yard at Wilmar, where Mr. Engelhardt has transferred his interests. Mr. Taylor will be greatly missed from the Methodist Episcopal church of which he was an active member and from N. P. Banks post, Good Templars Lodge and other organizations which he has served long, faithfully and with much credit.

MISS CUSHING FETED.

Mrs. L. L. Cushing entertained with a luncheon, charming and dainty in all its appointments complimentary to her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Cushing, at her residence on Glendale avenue Wednesday. A pretty arrangement of roses and greenery formed the table decorations. Covers were laid for Mrs. D. D. Whiting, Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mrs. M. L. Selbert and Miss Maude Moore.

MRS. EDWARD AYRES ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Edward Ayers of Glendale avenue entertained in a most charming manner with a pretty luncheon Tuesday, complimentary to Miss Harriet Nelmers and Miss Elizabeth Nelmers of Los Angeles.

Pink roses gracefully arranged in a bowl with a touch of plumcuss rested on a handsome center piece of point lace.

A BABY PARTY.

The very dearest and daintiest of baby parties was given winsome baby Gladys Peckham, by her adoring mamma, Mrs. Charles Peckham, at her beautiful home on Tropic avenue Tuesday afternoon, when the little miss celebrated her third anniversary. Mrs. Peckham was assisted in entertaining the little folks by Mrs. John Seaman. A very pretty feature of the afternoon was a fish pond, cleverly arranged around which the wee merry-makers gathered and with pole and line fished for the dainty little presents that lay hidden in the pond.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

A number of citizens, in the vicinity of Park avenue and Central avenue, are mourning the loss of fine dogs and useful cats, due to a wholesale poisoning by persons who have a few chickens. There is a state law requiring that persons placing poison around their premises are requested to notify the public by placing a sign indicating that poison is out and warning all. Persons in doubt as to the laws of the state should become familiar with the same, before beginning a wholesale poisoning regardless of the rights and privileges of their neighbors' animals.

DINNER AT "PALM VILLA."

Mr. and Mrs. David Imler entertained with a small dinner party Thursday evening, at their home "Palm Villa." The rooms throughout this beautiful villa were tastefully decorated in masses of roses, the color scheme of the roses, the queen of all flowers, blending harmoniously with the furnishings of each room. A large bowl of fragrant crimson roses, with rose petals arranged on the damask, were the simple but pretty table decorations. The guests of honor included Mr. George U. Moyses, Patron of Glen Eyrie chapter, Order of the Eastern Star; Mrs. George U. Moyses, Associate Matron, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Esther, and Mr. Daniel Campbell, Sentinel, Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, secretary.

Thursday Afternoon Club

One of the most interesting meetings of the Thursday Afternoon Club of the club year was held at the residence of Miss Frances Erskine, Thursday.

Owing to illness, Mrs. John A. Logan, president, was not present, and Mrs. A. W. Collins presided.

Mrs. Andrew Stephenson presented a most interesting program. The topic under discussion was "Our Native State," and each member responded with a brief instructive talk on her native state. Mrs. Charles Peckham gave a vocal solo in her usual gracious manner. Entertaining papers were read by Mrs. A. W. Collins on New York; Mrs. J. H. Webster on Wisconsin; Miss Harriet Meyers on Nebraska; Mrs. E. J. Morgan on New York. Miss Maude Moore sang "Oh that we Two were Maying." Mrs. John Hobbs rendered a late song dedicated to Southern California. Miss Frances Erskine rendered several piano selections. The afternoon closed with the serving of refreshments.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

Most cheerfully have the several organizations and clubs of Tropico responded to the call from the committee in Glendale appointed to arrange entertainment for Shriners' Day, Monday, May 6. Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt, president of N. P. Banks Woman's Relief Corps, appointed Mrs. Albert W. Collins, Mrs. Eugenia Halleck and Miss Flora Chandler.

Mrs. Samuel Ayres, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church, appointed as a committee to represent the society, Mrs. Frank I. Marsh, Miss Frances Erskine and Miss Mary Doyle.

Mrs. John A. Logan, president of the Thursday Afternoon Club, appointed Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. E. J. Logan, Mrs. J. H. Seaman.

Mrs. A. W. Collins, president of the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, appointed Mrs. Joseph H. Webster, Mrs. John Hobbs and Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis.

Dr. J. O. Garmon, president of the Improvement Society, appointed John A. Logan, John Hobbs, M. M. Eshelman, Mrs. J. O. Garmon, Mrs. D. M. Stuart, Mrs. Lee Bancroft.

FAIRYLAND PARTY.

Not only a peep into fairyland, but a few hours delightfully spent there, was the pleasure and happiness of a number of lassies of Tropico, Saturday afternoon, when they attended the Fairyland party given by Mrs. A. H. Sellers, of Chicago, Ill., who is spending the season at Hotel Green, Pasadena, to her nieces, Misses Eloise and Jeanette Seaman, and nephew master Joseph Seaman, at the attractive bungalow of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Seaman, on Central avenue. Mrs. Sellers, who is especially fond of entertaining little people and enjoys their enthusiasm and bright interesting witticisms, planned this very pretty party upon her first visit to Tropico, several months since.

The architectural arrangement of the spacious rooms of Mrs. Seaman's bungalow are well adapted for the beautiful fairyland decorations and color scheme with which it was decorated, and where the little sprites enjoyed their visit to Fairyland so much. Eloise Seaman in a dainty gown of pink Swiss, Jeanette Seaman attired in a fluffy dress of yellow Swiss, were truly the little fairies they represented. Joseph Lane Seaman, the little two-year-old son of Mrs. Seaman, a little elf in white tunic with crown of gold and wild wand, stood on a diminutive tiara of roses and callas and waving his wand bestowed upon each fairy guest a dainty little gift. A picture of a large rat was produced and each little guest endeavored to pin a tail on this unsuspecting rodent. Margaret Winchester received the prize for succeeding in decorating the tailless rat with his appendage.

A large evergreen circle was tastefully arranged in the room around which the children sat, each holding a small bisque doll in dainty pink dress, represented by the fairies, Eloise Jeanette. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hipwell and Miss Daisy Hipwell of Highland Park, Ill., Mrs. F. G. Logan and Miss Rea Logan, Chicago, Ill.; Miss M. E. Weston, Miss Kathryn Seaman and Charles Soule, who, with Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., enjoyed an afternoon in Fairyland, while the fairy godmothers, Mrs. A. H. Sellers and Mrs. John Seaman, presided over the entire scene.

The little fairies who flitted to and fro to the rhythm of sweet music, were Margaret Winchester of Highland Park, Ill., Marjorie Imler, Myrl Murray, Frances Peckham, Gladys Peckham, Kathryn Kilmer, Mary Logan, Katherine Hobbs, Dorothy Hobbs, Mabel Evans, Mary Evans, Harriet Williams, Eleanor Collins, Lella Webster, Leola Webster, Dorothy Lerch, Florence Chandler, Florence Breeden, Lillie Schick, Lena Ashton, Clara Shultz, Spencer Logan and Waldo Logan of Chicago, Ill.

REV. STUART HONORED.

At the recent session of the Presbytery which convened in Los Angeles, Rev. D. M. Stuart, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Tropico, was chosen one of the commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, which meets in Columbus, Ohio, May 16. Rev. Stuart will also visit in New York during his sojourn in the East.

Quality Goods

A LITTLE TALK ON PRICES!

Whether you trade with us or other grocers, don't feel "sore" if some of the articles come to you at a slight advance in price over your former purchases. Grocers to-day are doing business at a heavier expense and on a smaller margin of profit than ever before, due to the era of prosperity prevailing. Manufacturers and packers are advancing everything, and if we do not make some slight advances the condition will soon develop wherein we cannot exist; but we do not want you to feel that it is an effort to "cinch" you, but it is just a plain proposition of "LIVE AND LET LIVE"

BURBANK

Ed. Copeland is seriously ill at his home east of town.

Mrs. Joyce is entertaining her daughter and family from Nebraska.

Miss Clara Marshall of Los Angeles spent the last of the week visiting with old friends.

Miss Flora Kughen of Highland Park spent from Friday until Sunday with Miss June Luttge.

Mrs. Little and daughter of San Pedro were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kendall on Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swall of Newhall were guests the first of the week at the home of Mrs. Swall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pupka.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give a strawberry social in the I. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening. A good program with plenty of strawberries is promised.

Mr. Watson of Tropico is erecting a bungalow on his place on Tenth street, which he will rent to Mr. Thompson. Mr. Thompson intends starting a large chicken ranch on the place.

Judge Melrose fined three Greeks, who are working on the railroad, each $25 each for stealing lumber out of the old dryer. They did not understand that the lumber did not belong to the railroad.

J. L. Robison will erect a modern 5-room bungalow, where his old house now stands, in the near future. The old house will be moved back to Palm avenue, where they will live until the new one is completed.

Mr. McCall, the night operator, who left last week for Texas, where he was married, has returned to Burbank with his bride. Mr. and Mrs. McCall are now residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Buffington.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church was entertained by Mrs. W. M. Beeson at her home on Thursday afternoon. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies. Mrs. Jud. Shelton will entertain the Aid next month.

The Good Templars gave an ice social in the I. O. F. hall on Friday evening. A short comedy was given by P. F. Hunt, Will Holst, Harry Rixon and Fletcher Pomeroy. A good time was spent by the large crowd present.

Mr. A. O. Kendall is having his new house painted this week, which adds greatly to its attractions. The grounds have been laid out to lawn, shrubbery and rare flowers and when complete Mr. Kendall will have one of the finest homes in Burbank.

The members of the Presbyterian church held their yearly congregational meeting in the parlors of the church on Thursday evening. After the business meeting, a social good time was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

A merry crowd chartered the Glendale skating rink Wednesday evening. Those enjoying the evening were Mrs. Tom King, Misses June Luttge, Cora and Gladys Meyers, Carrie Hale, Minnie and Lucy Shillings, Ruth Pomeroy, Nellie Harris, Flora Kughen and Sadie Easton; Messrs. Harry Dunning, Will Bley, Ray Sence, Earle Dufur, Fletcher Pomeroy, Claude Hill, Walter Cunningham, Henry Lehman, Henry Story, Port and Ire Robison, June Story, Johnnie Holst, Edgar Clarke, Dave Kughen and Blake Kendall.

One of the most delightful social functions of the past week was the euchre party given by Mrs. Ed. Fischer at her home on Saturday evening. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Teuchette received ladies' first prize, and Mr. Coon gentlemen's first prize, while the consolation prizes fell to Mrs. C. B. Fischer and June Story. Invited guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Geo. H. Ward, Chas. Fischer, W. Gregory, Mesdames Giliand and Teuchette, Misses Mary McCarthy, Faith Sence, Susie Donahue, Messrs. Earle Dufur, Blake Kendall, Ray Sence, Henry and June Story, Victor Lemar and W. Coon.

HOME AGAIN.

Mr. J. H. Wells and son James returned Sunday morning from their trip to Honolulu, having been absent about two months. Mr. Wells reports having had a most enjoyable experience and a pleasant voyage both going and returning. His experience with the transportation companies, however, was not altogether pleasing, although he and his son fared better than did a number of other travelers whom they left at Honolulu waiting as patiently as possible for berth accommodations on the crowded steamers homeward bound. Notwithstanding the fact that our travelers were provided with tickets for first-class passage, they were held up for an extra ten dollars each for accommodations on the homeward bound steamer. In San Francisco they were told that trains were passing over the Coast Line without delay, but they were laid out 15 hours en route to Los Angeles, reaching there at 1 a. m. Sunday. But the islands were not a disappointment to the visitors; on the contrary, Mr. Wells speaks in high praise of the excellent macadamized streets of Honolulu, and is enthusiastic over the equable climate which, although this is the rainy season there, proved delightfully refreshing and restful. Showers were of almost daily occurrence, but no heavy storms were experienced. Fruits are not abundant in the islands at this season, but the travelers enjoyed the pineapples, guavas and alligator pears. Pineapples are produced there all the year around, but are not plentiful now. This industry is growing rapidly and the plantations devoted to the raising of this fruit about Honolulu are numerous and extensive. Mr. Wells is of the opinion, however, that the best Florida pineapple is superior to the Hawaiian product in quality. The production of sugar is the chief industry of the islands, and will probably remain so for some years to come. There is a promising outlook for the coffee industry, but the opportunities for the individual with small capital do not seem numerous. Regarding the influx of Japanese it is evidently nothing more than a natural movement of the ambitious workers of Japan, who are lured to the islands by the promise of good wages. They find employment on the sugar plantations, whose proprietors are glad to get such a reliable class of laborers. The native Hawaiians are a fine people physically, but are rapidly being decimated by the kind of civilization they have imbibed. The travelers indulged in the pastime so generally practiced by the natives, known as surf riding, which Mr. Wells describes as altogether the most exciting pastime he has tried since as a boy he went coasting down steep hills. The canoe used for this purpose is barely wide enough to accommodate one person, and great skill is shown by the natives in steering them over the highest waves. One is likely to get drenched during the performance, but it is something that should not be missed. From Honolulu Mr. Wells and James took a voyage of 130 miles over to Hawaii, the largest island of the group, which gives its name to them all, spoken of collectively. Here they visited one of the living volcanoes of the island and spent a night at the edge of the crater watching the fiery molten lava as it boiled in a surging mass hundreds of feet below, with frequent eruptions of steam at irregular intervals, suggestive of a certain nameless region with the lid off. Further inland the mountains rise to a height of 13,000 feet, a fact difficult for us to realize who fancy California's mountains to be so much higher than any elevation possibly could be on a little island down on the South Sea. But Shasta and Whitney are only a few hundred feet higher. Almost as interesting as the volcano Mr. Wells found the fern forest, where nearly all of the trees are ferns from 30 to 40 feet in height. It costs a good deal to travel about in the islands, a saddle horse being worth from four to five dollars per day, and no kind of a wheeled vehicle can be had for less than six dollars.
